I am so glad that you have decided to join this exciting quilt and textile travel opportunity which will bring you unspeakable inspiration for future projects, unprecedented quilt and textile study opportunities as well as an incredible European Travel experience.

This tour combines my favorite and best of previous quilt related tours. We will spend time traversing the country sides of France as we visit the textile rich areas that were considered the best producers of printed cotton in the world from the mid18th through the mid 20th centuries.
